1] State whether the following statements are true or false. (1)

1) A good friend is one who never stands by us -

2) True friendship makes no differentiation -

Passage:

Friendship is an important relationship - a bond with the friends. A good friend is one who stands by us through our thick and thin.

A good friendship blossoms when there is affection, love, care, concern and trust-among friends.

We should understand that true friendship should be tried and tested. True friends are those who offer support, improve your quality of life, promote self confidence, provide honesty and unconditional love and help.

True friendship makes no differentiation and doesn't think about whether one is rich or poor educated or uneducated and other such differences.

To be a true friend, we must trust each other, help and reach out to the person in need. Love and concern too are vital qualities essential to make friendship true and lasting.

How doth the little busy bee

How doth the little busy bee
Improve each shining hour,
And gather honey all the day
From every opening flower.

How skilfully she builds her cell;
How neat she spreads her wax,
And labors hard to store it well
With the sweet food she makes.

- Isaac Watts

A Parody

How doth the little crocodile
Improve his shining tail;
And pour the waters of the Nile
On every golden scale !

How cheerfully he seems to grin,
How neatly spreads his claws,
And welcomes little fishes in,
With gently smiling jaws!

- Lewis Carroll
